

OHC G2 Week #7 Winter Block 2025

MY STORY: Has anyone ever accused you with false accusations? How did you respond?

QUICK REVIEW: Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged, convicted or confused you?

SUNDAY MORNING DIGGING DEEPER: Read: Mark 14:53-65
What does verse 55 teach us about the people accusing Jesus?

Why wouldn't Jesus defend Himself from all the false accusations?

What does it tell us about Peter that he was following Jesus from a distance?

How did Jesus answer the high priest's key question? Why did He answer this instead of remaining silent?

Read Romans 5:5-11 What is the hope that does not disappoint?

How did God demonstrate His love for us?

What was our relationship to God when Christ came to die for us?

If God has demonstrated His love to us through Jesus' death, what can we anticipate concerning our future relationship with God?

MEMORIZE ONE: "I have hidden Your Word in my heart that I might not sin against You."
Leviticus 16:30, Isaiah 53:5, Isaiah 53:11, Romans 5:8

TAKING IT HOME: Do you have any additional thoughts or take-aways?

Mark 14:53-65

53 They took Jesus to the high priest, and all the chief priests, the elders and the teachers of the law came together. 54 Peter followed him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest. There he sat with the guards and warmed himself at the fire. 55 The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for evidence against Jesus so that they could put him to death, but they did not find any. 56 Many testified falsely against him, but their statements did not agree. 57 Then some stood up and gave this false testimony against him: 58 "We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple made with human hands and in three days will build another, not made with hands.'" 59 Yet even then their testimony did not agree. 60 Then the high priest stood up before them and asked Jesus, "Are you not going to answer? What is this testimony that these men are bringing against you?" 61 But Jesus remained silent and gave no answer. Again the high priest asked him, "Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?" 62 "I am," said Jesus. "And you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Mighty One and coming on the clouds of heaven." 63 The high priest tore his clothes. "Why do we need any more witnesses?" he asked. 64 "You have heard the blasphemy. What do you think?" They all condemned him as worthy of death. 65 Then some began to spit at him; they blindfolded him, struck him with their fists, and said, "Prophecy!" And the guards took him and beat him.

Romans 5:5-11

5 And hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us. 6 You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly. 7 Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die. 8 But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us. 9 Since we have now been justified by his blood, how much more shall we be saved from God's wrath through him! 10 For if, while we were God's enemies, we were reconciled to him through the death of his Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through his life! 11 Not only is this so, but we also boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Leviticus 16:30

because on this day atonement will be made for you, to cleanse you. Then, before the LORD, you will be clean from all your sins.

Isaiah 53:5

But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds we are healed.

Isaiah 53:11

After he has suffered, he will see the light of life^[a] and be satisfied^[b]; by his knowledge^[c] my righteous servant will justify many, and he will bear their iniquities.

Romans 5:8

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.
